Silent Meditation                      "Pray, and let God worry." ~Martin Luther

Prelude                      "Wade in the Water"                      SPP 87, Spiritual

Welcome to Worship

One: Whoever you are and wherever you are on life's journey,
ALL: We welcome you here.

Opening Comments

Entrance of Light & Ringing of the Bell

Call to Worship - (by Rev. Mia McClain)

One: Come, everyone who thirsts, Come to the waters. Come to the wells.

All: Our souls thirst for you, O God. We lift up our hands and call on your name.

One: Come, without money. Come without cost. Incline your ears and listen for good news.

All: Our flesh faints for you, O God. Our lips sing praises, beholding your glory.

One: Come, eat good. Come, feast upon true riches. Be filled with that which sustains you.

All: Our souls are satisfied in you, O God. In the shadow of your wings, we sing with joy.

Gospel Reading      (Luke 13:1-9, CEB)

Some who were present on that occasion told Jesus about the Galileans whom Pilate had killed while they were offering sacrifices. He replied, "Do you think the suffering of these Galileans proves that they were more sinful than all the other Galileans? No, I tell you, but unless you change your hearts and lives, you will die just as they did. What about those eighteen people who were killed when the tower of Siloam fell on them? Do you think that they were more guilty of wrongdoing than everyone else who lives in Jerusalem? No, I tell you, but unless you change your hearts and lives, you will die just as they did."

Jesus told this parable: "A man owned a fig tree planted in his vineyard. He came looking for fruit on it and found none. He said to his gardener, 'Look, I've come looking for fruit on this fig tree for the past three years, and I've never found any. Cut it down! Why should it continue depleting the soil's nutrients?' The gardener responded, 'Lord, give it one
