Silent Meditation

"Anybody can become angry — that is easy, but to be angry with the right person and to the right degree and at the right time and for the right purpose, and in the right way — that is not within everybody's power and is not easy." — Aristotle

Ring of the Bell

Call to Worship - (UCC Worship Ways - Rev. Dr. David Long-Higgins)

One: In a world uprooted at every turn, come beloved of God for replanting.

Many: Our hope and weariness are mixed together, yet we come, trusting ancient promises.

One: The Holy One who led the people out of Egypt, yearns to lead us, too.

Many: God will not rest until all are rerooted, restored, and renewed for rejoicing.

One: Let us be joined to God's song of justice, bearing beauty into the life of the world.

Many: May our lives be formed for faithfulness by the One who is always faithful.

Prayer for Illumination

First Reading (Isaiah 5:1-7, NRSV)

Gospel Reading (Luke 12:49-56, NRSV)

"I came to bring fire to the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled! I have a baptism with which to be baptized, and what stress I am under until it is completed! Do you think that I have come to bring peace to the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division! From now on five in one household will be divided, three against two and two against three; they will be divided:

father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law."

He also said to the crowds, "When you see a cloud rising in the west, you immediately say, 'It is going to rain'; and so it happens. And when you see the south wind blowing, you say, 'There will be scorching heat'; and it happens. You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of earth and sky, but why do you not know how to interpret the present time?
